TO ALL STAFF AND STUDENTS

A CONFIRMED COVID-19 CASE- THABAZIMBI CAMPUS

A COVID-19 case has been confirmed at the Thabazimbi Campus on the 26 May 2021, after a student who is attached to Education and Development L3, tested positive.

The student received results while at home and officially informed the Campus on Friday 28 May 2021. Campus Management immediately arranged for the deep cleaning of the affected areas on the 29 May 2021.

The student was put in isolation and recuperating well. Furthermore, in line with the protocols on Institutional response to COVID-19 case, Close contacts were notified and are also in isolation.

The College management would like to encourage Staff and students to follow COVID-19 protocols. The College community is reminded to self-isolate, if they depict any COVID-19 symptoms. It is imperative that cases are reported to the College timeously so that precautionary measures can be put in place.

“Remember together we can, and this too shall pass”
